Olympian Lendon Gray is one of the most highly regarded clinicians in the nation. She is known for working with horses of all shapes and sizes, from her internationally competitive ponies like Seldom Seen (pictured below) to the largest warmbloods. She has competed Arabians and Half Arabians both at Arabian shows and on the open circuit, and Wendy Luscombe's Kitwell Consul, an Anglo Arab, was one of her long time grand prix partners.

This clinic is open to riders of all levels, riding horses of any breed—all are welcome!
